Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive and insurance company, files a statement claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information may be guilty of a criminal act punishable by law.

Baggage Delay, Lost, Damaged or Stolen Claim Instructions

The Baggage Expense Claim Form can be used to file claims for:

- Items lost, stolen or damaged during your trip;
- Essential items you purchased when your luggage was delayed or misrouted by an airline or cruise line;

Please complete and sign the Baggage Expense Claim Form in full and return it with the documentation noted below.

For all claims, submit:

- Copies of your travel documents confirming your travel dates and itinerary;
- Copies of your boarding pass or e-ticket;
- Copies of invoices or receipts for all claimed baggage expenses;
- Proof of payment of the claimed baggage expenses – copies of both sides of checks, copies of credit card statements or receipts for cash payments;
- Proof of loss:
 - Verification of the damage, loss or theft including a copy of the report filed with the travel provider, hotel or local police department;
 - A statement from the airline or cruise line confirming the delay of your luggage and confirming the length of the delay. This can be requested through the Customer Service page of the airline or cruise line's website.
 - A statement confirming the loss or damage of your luggage by the airline or cruise line and showing any amounts paid or reimbursed by the airline or cruise line.

If your policy has excess baggage protection coverage, you must first file your claim with the responsible party and then your primary insurance company. If you are not fully reimbursed by the responsible party and your primary insurance company, you may file a claim for the unpaid expenses as noted in these instructions.

If the responsible party has denied your claim or has not paid your claim in full and the amount of loss is less than the policy deductible in your Homeowners or Renter's insurance, it is not necessary to file a claim with your insurance company. Simply submit a copy of the declaration page of the insurance policy showing the policy deductible.

Your claim should be submitted to the address at the top of these instructions.
